「奥出雲の食」の魅力を伝えよう!

This block contains two pages of student work. The left page features a central illustration of a cow and a pig, with handwritten text and drawings around them. The right page is a collage of smaller articles and drawings, including a 'Natural Rice' section with a rice field illustration, a 'Note-taking Time' section with a drawing of a person writing, and a 'Collection Record' section with a drawing of a rice bowl. The text is written in Japanese and includes various drawings and diagrams.

This block contains a page of student work focused on 'OSAKE' (Sake). It features a large, colorful title 'OSAKE' and several sections of handwritten text. There are illustrations of sake bottles and a person holding a glass. The text discusses the history and production of sake, with some sections titled '酒作りで大切なことは何ですか?' (What are the important things in sake-making?) and '米の種類にもこだわりが!!' (We have a strong preference for rice varieties!!). The work is colorful and includes various drawings and diagrams.

This block contains a page of student work focused on 'Natural Rice'. It features a large, colorful title '自然で育った追分米' (Natural Rice Grown in the Pursue) and several sections of handwritten text. There are illustrations of rice fields, rice stalks, and a rice bowl. The text discusses the natural growing process of rice and its benefits. The work is colorful and includes various drawings and diagrams.
